

COGECO CONNEXION INC.
Specific Terms and Conditions – Business Solutions
Schedule – High Speed Business Internet

Use of HSI Services. High Speed Business Internet (“HSI”) services should only be used from your business service address and other addresses that are related to your business. You are prohibited from reselling or transferring the HSI service to any other person, for any purpose, or from charging any fees for the use of the HSI service, without our prior written permission. Upon discovering that your use of the HSI service or any functionality related thereto infringes the terms hereof or exceeds reasonable usage limits that we determine, at our sole discretion, or that you engage in illegal or deceptive trade practices or any other behaviour prohibited by terms of use for the HSI service, we may, at any time and without prior notice, limit or suspend your access to the HSI service. In such case, you must contact our customer service which may require payment of fees or charges in order to restore you access to the service.

Last revision: October 14, 2021